

This court case established the power of judicial review.

Marbury vs Madison

This person served as Chief Justice of the US Supreme Court from 1801 to 1835 and had an enormous influence over the future of the court.

John Marshall

This clause in the 14th Amendment says that no state may deprive any person of life, liberty or property without allowing them due process.

due process clause

US Supreme Court case that ruled that "separate but equal" was constitutional

Plessy v Ferguson

US Supreme Court case that overturned Plessy v Ferguson

Brown v Topeka Board of Education

The article of the US Constitution that established the judicial branch

Article III

The federal court level that is considered a trial court.

District courts

The number of justices on the US Supreme Court.

9

After a president nominates someone to the US Supreme Court, which part of Congress must confirm or approve them?

Senate

True or False: Can a president declare a ruling of the US Supreme Court unconstitutional?

False

The US Supreme Court case that led to requiring police to read a person their right to remain silent and that they must be given an attorney if they cannot afford one.

Miranda v Arizona

The authority of a court to hear a case is called...

jurisdiction

The highest court in the land

US Supreme Court

True or False: Personal views of the justice, existing laws and social forces and public attitudes all play a part in how a justice decides cases.

True