

In order to be president you need to be at least this age.

35 years old

In order to be president you must be born...

...in the United States & live here for 14 years

The salary of a US president

$400,000 + benefits

The president is part of this branch of the government.

Executive

If the president has committed "high crimes and misdemeanors" he can be brought up on charges here.

House of Representatives

If the president has committed "high crimes and misdemeanors" and is charged by the House, he can be tried here.

Senate

A president may serve this many terms total.

2

A president may serve how many total years in office?

10

Which amendment to the US Constitution limits how long a president may serve in office?

22nd Amendment

The president is elected by the...

Electoral College

Which of the following amendments would be used if the president were found to be disabled and unable to serve in his office?

25

Which amendment lowered the voting age to 18 in 1971?

26

How many electoral votes does a president need to win the election?

270

Which cabinet department is responsible for running the national parks?

Interior

Which cabinet department is responsible for safeguarding the food supply?

Agriculture

Which cabinet department is responsible for protecting worker's pensions?

Labor

Which cabinet department is responsible for collecting income taxes?

Treasury

Which US president signed an executive order integrating the military?

Harry Truman