

---

1. Absolute Monarchy	This type of government gives full control to the monarch (king etc...) without any check on their decisions by anyone else.
2. Constitutional Monarchy	This type of government has a constitution that limits the power of the monarch (king etc...)
3. Democracy	Power is exercised by the people
4. Dictatorship	This type of government involves the rule of one powerful individual called a dictator. His rule is absolute and he often takes power by force.
5. Direct Democracy	The people all vote on the issues themselves
6. Monarchy	This type of government is ruled by a king, queen or emperor
7. Oligarchy	This type of government involves power in the hands of a few elite individuals. (If the army takes over the country it is an oligarchy with a special term - a Military Junta)
8. Representative Democracy	The people elect others to represent their interests in government
9. Theocracy	This type of government gives the power to rule to a religion and a religious leader.

---